Nursing is one of the most demanding professions, requiring compassion, resilience, and meticulous attention to detail. However, the increasing workload, emotional stress, and long hours often lead to nurse burnout—a state of physical, emotional, and mental exhaustion caused by prolonged stress and overwork. When nurses work harder without adequate support or relief, their well-being, job satisfaction, and patient care quality can suffer significantly. Recognizing the signs of burnout and knowing effective strategies to combat it are essential for nurses and healthcare organizations alike.
